

Grigor Dimitrov, a very talented player.

Grigor Dimitrov spent the 2007/2008 season at the Sánchez-Casal Academy, before his jump from Junior to the ATP Circuit.

During that time, he focused in being solid in all areas of the court, improving his fitness and strategy in order to get ready for different game situations.

A very talented player, friendly with friends, coaches, staff and showing a great one-handed backhand down the line.

During his time at the Sánchez-Casal Academy, won two Grand Slam Juniors: in 2008 (Wimbledon and U.S. Open) and in that year announced he was leaving the junior circuit to make the jump to professional.

He won the title in a Future in Barcelona, added two more Futures titles in Madrid, which allowed him to give a good jump in the rankings by placing 477.
